SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Motto: "He Conquers Who Endures."
Colors: Scarlet and Gray
Flower: Yellow Tea Rose

In 1936 ninety-three freshmen answered "Here" to the roll call in College Life class. Eight of these charter members have remained all four years. They are: Mae Orendorff, Betty Trump, Georgia Ellen Loucks, Ruth King, Samuel Bucher, Vernon Schmidt, Elwood Ziegler and Howard Blosser.

Time knows no stopping place. We must go on. We have much to look forward to, but there is much behind that will draw us back. We recall how, as freshmen, we struggled through our first party in the dining hall. We ended that year with a rollicking time at Camp Mack. Our President was Leland Byler; Vice President, Harvey Hunsberger; Secretary, Naomi Hoylman; Treasurer, May Rohrer. As sophomores we felt a little more at ease. Many struggled with their practice teaching. When we should have been studying, the weather prompted a skating party. Our boys' basketball team headed the league. Our officers this year were President, Falls Hershey; Vice President, Frank Byler; Secretary, Ruth King; Treasurer, Maurice Burkholder. As juniors we were startled to find how small our class had grown. Our officers were President, Maurice Burkholder; Vice President, Samuel Bucher; Secretary, Elizabeth Sieber; Treasurer, Isaiah Harley. Along with our work we had to have some fun, so we had a fraud sneak. For our class outing we went to Bonneyville Mill. At another time our class sponsor, Miss Shenk, entertained us at a party where our candy-making abilities were tried. The year closed with a social feature at a park in Elkhart. October 3, 1938, marked the date of our sneak. The scenery was beautiful at Turkey Run, where we spent two pleasant days. Upon our return the juniors sent us upon a mysterious venture that ended in supper outdoors. By this time we had learned that our class sponsor had another interest, and would be leaving us; so in her place we chose Professor Willard Smith.

We, too, have come to the place where we must leave. We step out that another class may take our place. We have been here, now we are gone. Time knows no stopping place.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

Motto: "Rowing, Not Drifting."

Colors: Blue and Gold

Flower: Yellow American Beauty Rose

In the fall of 1936 one hundred and twenty freshmen invaded the Goshen College campus. These young men and women left their homes in varied sections of the United States. They came from the shores of the Atlantic and the Pacific; they came from Canada and from sunny Texas. They came with various aims and goals in mind, but each one felt that the years spent at Goshen College would be profitable. The class progressed under capable leadership: Virgil Gerig, President; John Smucker, Vice President; Frances Barnard, Secretary; Elizabeth Plank, Treasurer, and Richard Culp, Historian. During this freshman year, while they were becoming adjusted to their new environment, they held their colors high in forensics, and their ability in athletics was not to be smiled at. And, of course, freshmen have their fun, too. They became better acquainted with one another through the Snowbound party in the gym, and the Class Day outing at "The Dunes".

The fall of 1937 saw the return of seventy-six of the one hundred and twenty who had enrolled as freshmen. That year they had the following organization: Franklin Bishop, President; Lawrence Stump, Vice President; Edith King, Secretary, and William Allan, Treasurer. Again they showed that they were not behind in intercollegiate debate, discussion, declamation, music, and athletics. Some of the most interesting socials of the year were the treasure hunt, the sleigh ride, and the party in the cabin by the river.

Since many of the students were taking the two-year teachers' training course, these did not return for the junior year. A few recruits, however, have joined the force, which brings the number to thirty-six. Wayne Yeater is at the helm as President; Clifford Yoder, Vice President; Elizabeth Plank, Secretary; Pauline Liechty, Treasurer, and Eleanor Reist, Historian. Again the Juniors have done well in the various campus activities, and again they have enjoyed their associations together. Such things will be remembered: the picnic at Miller's Grove, during which one of our more dignified members took an unexpected plunge in the creek; the tobogganing party; the royal entertainment given the Seniors out at the end of Gra-Roy Drive after they returned from the "sneak" we so graciously allowed them to take; and, of course, the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Now at the close of the year '38-'39 we are looking forward to another year in which to row, not drift.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

Motto: God our Guide, Service our Path, Success our Goal.

Colors: Blue and White

Flower: White Chrysanthemum

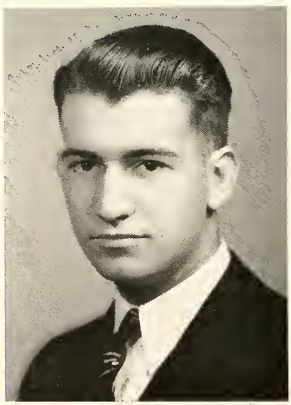
Eager to again avail ourselves of the splendid educational opportunities presented by Goshen College, seventy-nine from our Freshman Class returned to the campus. Ten others have been welcomed into our midst. We represent India, Canada and twelve states.

Our class was organized with Charles Ainlay, president; Ralph Hernley, vice president; Betty Kate Lee, secretary; Lowell Hershberger, treasurer; and Ella May Weaver, historian. Dr. Guy Hershberger continues to be our sponsor.

We vividly recall the social at the Boy Scout camp near Dunlap. The main features were the treasure hunt and the abundance of watermelons and hamburgers. After Christmas vacation climatic conditions afforded us a pleasant evening of sleighing.

We have whole-heartedly contributed to the extra-curricular activities. For the first time in the history of Goshen College, girls have participated in debating. The Sophomore girls team won five debates out of five at Manchester. The men were winners in the Freshman-Sophomore debates. A member of the class won the Men's Discussion Contest. In athletics the men won the consolation game. The girls were victors in the Freshman-Sophomore tournament.

Soon our sophomore class will be of the past but we will ever have God as our Guide while travelling in paths of Service toward our Goal—Success.



IN MEMORIAM

On November 22, 1938, Marvin Schertz, a Sophomore, finished his studies in this world. Unassuming, but with a ready smile, he was a friend to all he met. May the memory of his Christian life prove an inspiration to all.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

Motto: Character—the only true diploma.

Class Colors: Green and White

Class Flower: White Rose

September 14, 1938, ninety-six slightly bewildered students, representatives of eleven states, entered the mysterious realm of college life as Freshmen. During Freshmen days many friendships were formed and many unforgettable activities engaged in. We wrote our names on registration cards, sat through endless lectures and took a series of placement and psychological tests.

On December 14, having drawn up a constitution, we organized our class. The officers elected were: president, Harold Oyer; vice president, Clarence Burck; secretary, Lois Erb; treasurer, Jacob Beer; and historian, Freda Maust. We chose Professor Walter Yoder as class sponsor.

A number of Freshmen went out for debating. Clara Lehman and Genevieve Warner, as debaters of the Freshman class, won the Freshman-Sophomore Women's Debate.

Many Freshmen are enthusiasts in the various athletic activities on the campus and the Freshman A team came out victorious in the men's interclass basketball tournament.

We have appreciated the Christian spirit which prevails on the campus. It has guided us toward our goal—"Culture for Service". As the year draws to a close we can look back with pleasant memories to the success and pleasure we have enjoyed so far.

LOVER

These things I love:
Hard winds whose teeth
Snarl at high peaks
And plains beneath;

The frail, half-eaten
Bits of moon
That watch the dawns
Which come too soon;

I love the warmth
Of hands in mine;
The redolence
Of burning pine.

And this I love—
The quiet breath
Of God, within
The house of Death.

Y. M. C. A. CABINET

The Y.M.C.A. is designed to cooperate with the faculty in fostering a Christian atmosphere on the campus. This organization holds that Christianity should be a living source of inspiration for every phase of our daily life. With this assumption the Y.M.C.A. provides Christian interests and activities sufficiently diversified to touch many of the phases of normal activity.

With the spiritual life of the student body at heart, the association provides weekly devotional meetings, Mission Study classes, and prayer meetings. Various committees have charge of these and similar activities each under the leadership of a chairman who also acts as a member of the cabinet. Many of the social activities on the campus are sponsored by the social committee of the "Y".

Off-campus activities are also a part of the program. Gospel Teams are sent on extensive tours among the churches, and each week a Gospel Team is sent to the White Cross Mission in Elkhart and also to the Elkhart County Jail in Goshen. By taking part in such activities students have the opportunity to grow and develop talent and experience.

Y. W. C. A. CABINET

It is Monday evening, and the Cabinet assembles in the Y.W. room. A prayer is offered; then each member tells of her work with her committee. Open discussion is followed by worship. After the scripture reading, requests for prayer are given. The meeting is closed with the theme song, "Follow the Gleam".

The Y.W.C.A. is to promote Christian growth. In this endeavor it works with the Y.M.C.A. The Devotional Committee sponsors the Devotional Service held each Thursday. The Bible Study Courses, prayer meetings, morning devotions and the Mission Drive are the work of other committees. This year, "The Upper Room" was supplied. The Social Committee helps to sponsor all socials. The efforts of another committee are shown by the remembrances the sick receive, Heart Sister week and Big and Little Sisters. To maintain our Christian experience we must give expression to it and opportunities for service are provided by the Extension Committee.

All these activities and the motives producing them are summed up into a single phrase; it is—"to make Him known".

GOSPEL TEAMS

On Saturday evening, December 17, the Gospel Team began the first of its series of programs on "The Transformed Life". The team consisted of John Coffman, S. Paul Miller, Reuben Widmer, Howard Zehr, Robert Kreider, Dwight Stoltzfus, Sturges Miller, and Allen Miller. With John Coffman as leader, they gave programs at Chief, White Cloud, Ashley, Vestaburg, Turner, Pigeon, Pigeon River, and Imlay City in Michigan.

The group disbanded at Imlay City and John Coffman, Reuben Widmer, and Howard Zehr left for their homes. S. Paul Miller, Robert Kreider, Sturges Miller, Dwight Stoltzfus, and Allen Miller travelled eastward to meet Ralph Hernley and Isaiah Harley. Later they were joined by Lawrence Burkholder as leader. They gave programs at Johnstown and Scottdale in Pennsylvania; and at North Lima, Beech, Walnut Creek, Canton, Kidron, and Oak Grove in Ohio.

FOREIGN VOLUNTEER BAND

To carry out Christ's comand "Go ye into all the world" some of us want to give our lives for Christian service in foreign lands. The Foreign Volunteer Band was organized for those interested in this work. This year we had varied programs. Several return missionaries gave us valuable information. One meeting was devoted to a prayer service for Vesta Nafziger, a former member leaving for India. Timothy Brenneman, a former member appointed to Argentina, left us a challenge to spread missionary information. The last meetings were devoted to a series of talks by M. C. Lehman concerning the philosophy of missions. The open discussions of a practical nature were an important part of the meetings. There were twenty-three members this year with Lawrence Burkholder, president; Nancy Hernley, secretary; and Viola Good, third member of the Executive Committee.

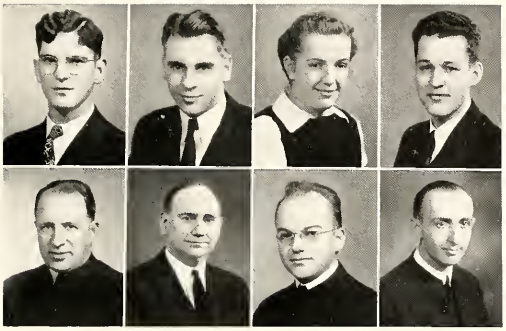
CHRISTIAN WORKERS BAND

BIBLE CIRCLE

The Band this year attempted a definite program to broaden our vision and to inspire us to study Christian service. Three types of programs were presented: a study of the "Characteristics of the Winning Worker", a general world survey to find fields for activity, and practical methods of Christian service. The success of the program cannot be measured until time has mellowed the efforts. The Wednesday morning prayer service provided an opportunity for mutual assistance and united prayer. That the organization filled a large part in the lives of the students was shown by the splendid attendance and the testimonies of blessings received.

The Bible Circle is an organization of the members of the Bible School and others interested in Bible study. Although there were fewer Bible majors, the membership reached a new high level of 34. Programs included a study of great scriptures, an address on "The Mennonites of Europe", and an illustrated lecture, "The Old Book Finding New Friends". A marshmallow roast and a dinner were the social events. As a gift to the school, the Circle framed a copy of "The Annunciation" by Fra Angelico, for the Bible Room. The officers were: Nelson Springer, president; Ella May Weaver, vice president; Genevieve Yoder, secretary-treasurer. John C. Wenger served as faculty adviser.



PEACE SOCIETY
MENNONITE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

"To promote an interest in the Christian teaching of peace; to encourage and support all forms of peace work;"—with aims such as these the Peace Society was founded in 1935. This year, particular emphasis was placed upon the study of an active peace program, and various phases of relief work were discussed as well as non-resistance, war psychology and conscientious objectors. The society also sponsored a Peace Conference, held a panel discussion at Young People's Meeting, and contributed peace literature to the library.

Interest in peace was increased by programs in the form of panel discussions conducted by members of the society in local churches as well as congregations in other states.

The Mennonite Historical Society was organized in 1925 as a scholarly society to promote study, research and publication in the field of Anabaptist and Mennonite History. Its membership is composed of both faculty and students.

Quarterly meetings are held during the school year at which addresses on various phases of Mennonite history are given. The society also publishes a series of monographs entitled "Studies in Anabaptist and Mennonite History", as well as "The Mennonite Quarterly Review", and sponsors the Mennonite Historical Library at Goshen College.

This year's programs were addresses on the "Mennonites of South America", "Mutual Aid Among Mennonites", "The Mennonites of Iowa", and "The History of the Brethren in Christ".

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

Le Cercle Francais is an organization for those who are interested in France and who wish to develop a deeper appreciation for her literature, art, music and culture.

The club holds regular meetings under the sponsorship of the instructor in French. Miss Shenk served as sponsor until her marriage in January, when she was succeeded by Mr. Otto Binkele. The club was privileged to hold a farewell party for Miss Shenk at the home of Professor Noble Kreider at which time he favored the group by reading some selections of French poetry. The programs and entertainment usually consist of musical numbers, readings, talks, and the playing of French games.

Among the other activities of the club this year were a Christmas and gift exchange, and the initiation of fifteen new members into the "Cercle".

DER DEUTSCHE VEREIN

It is the purpose of Der Deutsche Verein to promote an appreciation of the German "Kultur" and to foster fluency of speech in the language. The Verein was organized in 1932 and those persons are eligible for membership who have had five hours of college German or its equivalent. "Travel in Germany", "auf Deutsch", caused all to exercise their knowledge of the language. We enjoyed "Christmas in Germany" and later "Education in Germany". Outstanding at all meetings is the singing of beautiful German folksongs. The Verein shared these when we gave the after dinner program at which "Schnitzelbank" was the outstanding feature.

One of the most profitable and interesting societies on the campus of Goshen College is the Audubon Society. This society stimulates the interest and appreciation of bird lore.

The first semester John Coffman served as president. When he left Donald Ebersole was elected as president of the society.

Since Goshen College is situated in the midst of Nature itself, surrounded with beautiful lakes, the race, and beautiful treed areas such as the Shoup Woods and College Point, the club has more than the usual opportunity of observing the feathered family. Early morning hikes take place during the fall and spring. The alarm clock usually rings at the hour of 5:30 A. M., and all the ardent bird lovers tumble out of bed for a brisk hike through the woods to study the birds of the season.

After an hour or so of intermittent hiking and bird study, the group usually meets at the favorite bonfire at the end of Gra-Roy Drive, to compare notes, and to enjoy a much-appreciated, healthy breakfast of hot coffee, rolls, eggs, and bacon. These morning hikes prove both beneficial and excellent starters for the first-hour classes to which the group hurries back.

DEBATING

Several new features have been added to the debate program at Goshen College this year. Women's intramural debates were reintroduced. Goshen College women participated in inter-collegiate debating for the first time and debaters participated in the Franklin and Madison tournaments in addition to the one at Manchester.

In the intramural debates the freshman and sophomore classes broke even; the freshmen women and the sophomore men were victorious.

On January 14, twelve students attended the Novice Debate Tournament at Franklin College. The teams were: Affirmative: Wayne Yeater and Reuben Widmer; Doris Stuckey and Eunice Weaver; Margaret Gill and Carol Glick; Negative: Grant Stoltzfus and John Leatherman; Clara Lehman and Genevieve Warner; Harold Oyer and Glenn Esh. The scoring of the debates was done by the debaters themselves. The grade 70 to 80 was considered average. The highest scores in the Goshen squad were: John Leatherman and Glenn Esh, each 83%, and Margaret Gill, 81%.

Goshen College teams participated in the Ninth Annual Invitational Tournament at Manchester College, February 24-25. The A Division teams were: Affirmative: Clifford Yoder and Isaiah Harley; Glenn Esh and Dwight Stoltzfus; Negative: Grant Stoltzfus and John Leatherman; Charles Ainlay and Robert Kreider. The B Division teams debating at Huntington were: Affirmative: Wayne Yeater and Reuben Widmer; Doris Stuckey and Eunice Weaver; Negative: Clara Lehman and Genevieve Warner; Margaret Gill and Lois Mary Schertz. The best record made in the A Division by a Goshen team was by Charles Ainlay and Robert Kreider, who won four out of six debates. The best record in the B Division was made by Doris Stuckey and Eunice Weaver, who won five out of five. This is the first Goshen team to come through a tournament with a perfect record.

Two teams participated in the University of Wisconsin invitational forensic tournament at Madison, Wisconsin, March 24-25. Charles Ainlay participated in the oratorical contest and Isaiah Harley, Robert Kreider and Clifford Yoder in the discussion contest. Harley was eliminated in the semi-finals.

Again the Aurora Literary Society had a successful year. We got our share of new members on solicitation day, with a total of fifty-three members for the year. Later, we treated the Avons to an outing where the Elkhart river flows. Here we renewed old acquaintances and made new ones. We helped to sponsor the Avon-Aurora musicale to which we invited the Adelphians and Vesperians.

We were also successful in athletics. We played the Adelphians in soft ball and basketball and emerged with our banners waving triumphantly.

We again sponsored the annual Men's Discussion Contest. The society has lived up to its motto, "Forward", this year as it has in years past. It is our hope that it will continue to go forward in years to come and will be a vital part of campus life.

Another successful year for the Adelphians began in September, 1938, with twenty-five new members. With returning members they composed a group of fifty-three young men who believed in their motto, "Learn to do by doing", and showed its spirit in all their activities.

This year's social activities began with a "hay ride" to a nearby grove, where the Adelphians and Vesperians enjoyed games and a dinner beside large campfires. Later they gave a public program portraying negro life. The Christmas exchange was also a success.

The Adelphians again took part in the athletic program, always showing the Adelphian spirit.

So may their banner continue to wave over those who "Learn to do by doing".

Last fall twenty-three Avons returned and prepared for the Avon-Vesperian tea and the conjoint program given for all new girls. Thirty-five new members were welcomed into the society. The total membership was forty-nine.

The programs, frequently followed by informal parties, have included travel talks, study of the gypsies, impromptu speeches, and debates.

The Avons have taken part in many social activities. They were entertained by the Auroras at an outing along Plymouth Road. The Avon reunion at Homecoming, with "Hobbies" as its theme, was enjoyed by former and present members. Following the Avon-Aurora Musicale, the two societies entertained the Vesperians and Adelphians at a Christmas party in the dining hall, which was transformed into an Old English Inn, complete with Yule singers. The Avons strive to live up to their motto —"Esse quam videri"—"To be rather than to seem."

Monday afternoon — four-fifteen sharp! early arrivals are rewarded with the luxury of a soft davenport or an easy chair. Perhaps it was the anticipation of these restful moments which made twenty-three new girls join the Vesperian body, with a total membership of sixty-three.

The members were initiated by fulfilling recipes for new experiences. Then there was the "back to the farm" movement, a joyful hay-ride to the woods with the Adelphians. Later, each class contributed to the society by presenting an interestingly different program. More fun was in store when we bestowed valentine gifts, and found that many members were among the famous whose birthdays were in February. At Soiree, the Adelphians and Vesperians entertained the other societies in a Japanese tea-garden.

Again a gay and profitable year has strengthened the loyalty of those who have proudly named themselves Vesperians.

BIBLE SCHOOL

In Goshen College, as John S. Coffman declared in 1896, "the blessed Bible, which has been ruled out of so many schools, colleges and universities, must have a place . . . Its precepts must be vigorously taught". In accordance with Coffman's program, at Goshen College the Bible is taught as the infallible Word of God. The faculty is committed firmly to the evangelical position and seeks to propagate a Biblical Mennonitism.

During the past year S. C. Yoder was on leave of absence. Harold S. Bender, Paul E. Mininger and John C. Wenger served as the Bible school faculty. John Duerksen also taught one class each semester.

The Bible School attempts to meet the needs of several classes of students. Any college student may elect to take a number of Bible courses or to become a candidate for the B.A. degree with a minor or major in Bible. The degree of Bachelor of Theology (Th.B.), is offered to those having a minimum of fifty-four semester hours of credit in Bible, and who have satisfied the other requirements for that degree. The College also offers a two-year Christian Workers' Course for those interested in less than four years of training.

Naturally the major emphasis is upon a first-hand study of the English Bible. However, an encouraging response is being given the New Testament Greek classes which are conducted every year and to the Hebrew course which is offered occasionally.

With an ever-greater need of sound Biblical training in the Mennonite Church, the Bible School has a bright future.

WINTER BIBLE SCHOOL

Every young Mennonite who has not had the opportunity of a Christian college education should spend several winters in the Bible School.

This year eighty-three students were enrolled from seven states. Courses in Bible, Church History, practical church work and music were offered. The regular teachers were: D. A. Yoder, I. E. Burkhart, I. W. Royer, and O. N. Johns. Walter E. Yoder, Mrs. Glen R. Miller, John Duerksen, and John C. Wenger of the college faculty each taught one course. A chorus of thirty members was organized and sang at the commencement program.

Religious, Social, and News committees were in charge of student activities. A boys' basketball team was organized, and two games were played with college teams. The outstanding social events were the Treasure Hunt and the Farewell.

Commencement exercises were held February 9. Eleven students received diplomas for completing three years' work and fifteen for the Sunday School Elementary Teacher Training Course. The Christian Life Conference brought the Bible term to a fitting close.

MEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

At Goshen, we believe the success of a college athletic program lies in the extent of participation by and service to all the students rather than in the specialized training of a select few. We have a system of intramural athletics which is jointly controlled by student and faculty committees. It is possible for every student interested in physical activity to participate in our athletic program. An important aspect of personal development should be the development of a strong, healthy body. To this development, proper physical exercise and training has a vital contribution to make. Athletic activities included softball, football, speedball, tennis, volleyball, badminton, tumbling, archery, skiing, swimming, ping pong, basketball, baseball and the annual Spring Track Meet. In all of these activities the Goshen College Athletic Association endeavors to cooperate with the class room activity of the school in making its contribution to the development of better American citizens.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The purpose of the W.A.A. is "to promote the interest of student women in gymnasium and field sports, and recreational activities". In a quiet way the officers and active members have worked together to accomplish this end. The letter members of the W.A.A. bicycled and had breakfast together. The same group arranged for a "Play Day" program and banquet for forty-two girls in January. In addition to these recreational activities there have been two important changes in the system of awards. Because of the interest in volley ball, because the purpose of the W.A.A. is to serve the largest possible group, and because it is now recognized that too much emphasis has been placed on the highly organized and technical game of basketball, the W.A.A. has placed the awards for all team sports on the same level. When this change was made they felt that it was only fair to insist on participation in some team sport. Consequently in order to qualify for a letter or sweater it is now necessary for the person to take part in two of the team games.

AURORAS

ADELPHIANS

It has been an annual tradition at Goshen College that the literary societies, both men's and women's, meet on the basketball floor. For many years the Adelphian and Vesperian societies had maintained supremacy in this department of our athletics. Last year, however, the Auroras first broke the long string of victories of the Adelphians and this year a superior Aurora team repeated.

In the first game the Adelphians won 27 to 18. The second game which proved to be a well-played, fast game resulted in a victory for the Aurora's 25-23, tying the series at one game each. In the play off the Auroras won the series with a final victory, the score being 30-24.

In the women's society games the Vesperians continued to hold the upper hand. With the accurate scoring of sharp shooting forwards, victory was attained by the Vesperian Society.

The object of these games, to create friendly rivalry and further develop good sportsmanship, was fully realized this past season.

BASEBALL

What are some of the welcome signs of Spring? Robins, wildflowers, croaking of frogs? Yes—but how about the appearance of the baseball glove—the warming up exercises? In a few days the ball throwers congregate in great numbers out on the new ball diamond. The crisp hard crack of a well hit ball, the skillful scoop and over to first, the incessant chatter! That is baseball. In our whole athletic system no game is played on a higher level of achievement or with greater enthusiasm.

TOUCH FOOTBALL

A newcomer among sports is touch football. This is a game played with a football but lacks the tackling and roughness of regular football. It has been enthusiastically received by the fifty men participating. As the cool days of fall come on, a running, throwing game with a ball that is more elusive—harder to handle—admirably fills the gap between softball and the later gymnasium games.

SOFTBALL

Everybody plays softball. Running concurrently with tennis, archery, and horseshoe pitching, it is the opening-of-school game. Teams are quickly organized and the athletic school year is begun. As proof of its popularity one need but cite the fact that many men and women participated in the fall of '38. After initial wrestlings with subjects of the classrooms, many let up by playing or watching a ball game.

ARCHERY

An examination of the multi-punctured targets and the many wrecked arrows reveals the considerable activity in archery during the present season. Some of the men have made bows of their own, thus adding to their pleasure in the sport. While many men and women are receiving instructions in the rudiments of archery, no one to date has developed into an expert archer. A small nucleus of men or women is needed to develop archery to the level where it means something to be rated as a Goshen College archer.

TENNIS

The fall of '38 was an ideal tennis season. In fact the season was so favorable that a tennis tournament of major proportion was initiated and completed. Jacob Beer won the fall championship in a field of 16 contenders, eliminating Ralph Greener in the finals. Interest and skill is definitely moving upwards among women players, no doubt as a result of supervised tennis training in Physical Education Classes.

BADMINTON

Introduced as an experiment, badminton has rapidly won recognition as a game demanding dazzling speed and accuracy. It fills a peculiar need in that it may be played in any kind of weather, at any time of the day, and with but two or four players. The game is much faster than tennis since the shuttlecock, unlike the tennis ball, is played entirely in the air and at much shorter range. Tournaments enlisted sixty-eight men and ten women.

CALENDAR

DESERTED

It was so clean and new
The little home along the country road;
They planned all year, saving
Enough to marry and to live there
Together . . . winter came, and she grew ill . . .

Many winters come.
A vacant house where curtainless windows
Are hung with snow, which falls outside,
Catches the thorns of ancient gossip.
Here deathly silence is shattered
When branches scrape across the roof,
And a frightened rat rushes
Under the corner of a loosened board to hide.

—Marybeth Sears

BEAUTIFUL PHANTASY

It is
A beautiful phantasy
I thread;
Upon a silken strand
Of melody;
Tears of melancholy rain,
Splendor shed,
A breath of incense,
A voice of rapture
Languishing,
A soul
From poppies bled,
And wine from laughter,
A word
From memory's echo,
When life has fled,
A silken rustle
In phantom halls,
A cloak of night,
A dream,
A sigh,
When love was said,
Ah yes,
It is a beautiful phantasy
I thread
Upon a silken strand.

Just Old-Fashioned!

Not the greatest . . . not the largest . . . but an organization devoted to a principle of excellence. For more than three decades hundreds of yearbook editors and business managers have placed their faith in our ability to help them design, publish, and finance unusual yearbooks . . . Just old-fashioned in principle, but with a very definite flare for the best in modern publication trends!
